

Source STOXX Europe 600 Optimised Health Care UCITS ETF

Investment objective

The Source STOXX Europe 600 Optimised Health Care UCITS ETF seeks to provide the performance of the STOXX® 600 Optimised Health Care Total Return Index.

Source ETF structure

The Fund achieves its performance through Source's swap-enhanced ETF structure. This innovative investment technique combines full investment in physical equities with a multicounterparty swap overlay to minimise tracking error. Source's approach allows counterparty risk to be substantially reduced compared to typical swap-enhanced ETFs.

About the benchmark

STOXX® Europe 600 Optimised Supersector indices have been optimised to reduce exposure to illiquid stocks thereby creating a more representative and investable sector benchmark.

Key features

Liquidity

Source's multi broker/dealer platform enhances daily liquidity and provides robust bid-offer spreads both OTC and on exchange. Source ETFs have similar liquidity characteristics to their underlying traded securities.

Flexibility

By using Source ETFs on a number of indices, an investor can build or customise a range of exposures and with intraday liquidity can adjust these exposures dynamically. Source ETFs can be lent and borrowed, allowing investors to go long and short indices.

Transparency

Source ETFs aim to replicate the performance of the underlying index. Additionally, they benefit from a transparent fund and cost-structure. Benchmark constituents and weightings are published daily.

Simplicity

Source ETFs help investors to gain exposure to a wide range of indices while executing only one trade.

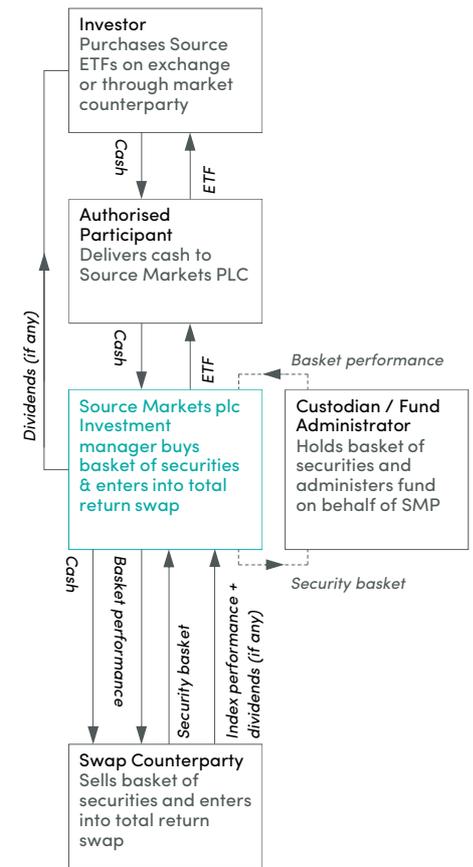

Accessibility

Source ETFs are traded and settled on regulated stock exchanges and can be purchased and held in ordinary brokerage or custodial accounts.

Cost-effectiveness

Source ETFs have significantly lower management fees or total expense ratios (TERs) than many actively managed funds.

Risk Factors: The investments of the Fund in securities are subject to normal market fluctuations and other risks inherent in investing in securities. The value of investments and the income from them, and therefore the value of and income from shares relating to each Fund can go down as well as up and an investor may not get back the amount invested. Changes in exchange rates between currencies or the conversion from one currency to another may also cause the value of the investments to diminish or increase. Due to charges which may be payable on the shares, an investment in shares in the Fund should be viewed as medium to long term. An investment in a Fund should not constitute a substantial proportion of an investment portfolio and may not be appropriate for all investors.

There is no assurance that any Fund will achieve its investment objective. As a Fund whose target performance is linked to a reference index will often be invested in securities which differ from the constituents of the index and derivative techniques will be used to achieve the performance. While the prudent use of such derivatives can be beneficial, derivatives also involve risks which, in certain cases, can be greater than the risks presented by investing directly in the constituents of the index. Index Disclaimers: The STOXX® Optimised indices and related trademarks
